

Little Red Riding Hood – Script and Song Lyrics

NARRATOR     Once upon a time there was a little girl who lived in a village near a wood. When she went out, she always wore a red cloak with a red hood, so everyone called her ‘Little Red Riding Hood’.

One day, her mother said to her:

MOTHER        Your granny is ill. Please will you take these cakes to her?

With a basket full of currant buns.

NARRATOR     Little Red Riding Hood was reminded by her mother not to stop at all on the way. She must go straight to her grandmother’s house and not talk to any strangers. So she promised to be careful, waved goodbye to her mother and skipped off through the woods.

It was a lovely sunny day and Little Red Riding Hood saw some beautiful flowers growing. The flowers were so pretty that she forgot her promise to her mother, knelt down and began to pick some. But someone was lurking behind the trees. It was a crafty, hungry wolf.

- NARRATOR Mr Wolf walked up to Little Red Riding Hood and spoke to her in a nice, friendly voice.
- MR WOLF What is your name little girl?
- LITTLE RRH I'm Little Red Riding Hood.
- MR WOLF And where are you going?
- LITTLE RRH To my granny's house down there in the woods.
- NARRATOR Mr Wolf thought that Little Red Riding Hood looked very tasty and he cooked up a cunning plan. Off he ran as fast as he could to Granny's house. He knocked on the door. Granny sat up in bed.

GRANNY           Who is it?

NARRATOR       Mr Wolf put on the sweetest voice he could.

MR WOLF         It's me, Little Red Riding Hood.

GRANNY         Come in, come in!

NARRATOR       Mr Wolf let himself in. He went over to Granny, opened up his mouth and gobbled her up whole. He let out a large burp!

MR WOLF         (Rubbing tummy) A bit tough!

NARRATOR       Mr Wolf put on one of Granny's nightgowns, one of her frilly sleeping caps and her glasses. Then he got into Granny's bed and waited for Little Red Riding Hood to arrive.

                  A short time later there was a knock at the door. Mr Wolf spoke in his friendly, sweet voice again.

MR WOLF         Who is it?

LITTLE RRH     It's me, Little Red Riding Hood.

MR WOLF         Come in my dear.

NARRATOR       But when Little Red Riding Hood went into the cottage, she thought her Granny looked very, very odd.

4 Granny, you're looking odd today,
Your teeth have grown a lot.

NARRATOR Little Red Riding Hood looked carefully at Granny.

LITTLE RRH Oh Granny, what big ears you have!

MR WOLF/ALL All the better to hear you with.

LITTLE RRH But Granny, what big eyes you have!

MR WOLF/ALL All the better to see you with.

LITTLE RRH But Granny, what big teeth you have!

MR WOLF/ALL All the better to eat you with and I'm going to eat you up!!

NARRATOR Mr Wolf leapt out of bed and began to chase Little Red Riding Hood. She ran round the room with the wolf behind her, screaming loudly. A woodcutter, chopping logs nearby, heard the screams and ran quickly to the cottage.

He bonked the wolf on the head and slit him down the middle with his axe. Out popped Granny.

GRANNY (Looking startled) Oh my goodness!

NARRATOR Then Little Red Riding Hood, Granny and the woodcutter filled the wolf's tummy with stones. They sewed him up and took him deep into the woods. Mr Wolf had a very bad tummy ache when he woke up.

Everyone felt very relieved.

LITTLE RRH From now on, I will always do as mother asks and never speak to strangers.

NARRATOR Granny, the woodcutter and Little Red Riding Hood sat down together to have tea and cakes and were never bothered by that wicked Mr Wolf again.
